THE SENTINEL AT NEW ORLEANS.

To accommodate the throng from the Northwest who will desire to read their favorite home paper while attending the "World's Exposition," the Sentinel has been placed on sale in New Orleans at George F. Wharton & Co.'s, No. 5 Carondelet street, between Canal and Common streets.

OLD PAPERS.

Good conditioned old papers for sale at this office at only 40 cents per hundred.

CITY IN BRIEF.

A match factory is being talked of, the parties being foreign to this city.

Parties interested are trying to effect a compromise in the Bolen-Mache seduction case by a marriage of the parties.

Henry Webber, employed at the Pan-Handle shops, had his hand and arm crushed while raising a car by screws Sunday.

The Mayor yesterday fined Matthias Kaesberg for assault and Pat and Jerro Hardy were fined for an attack upon Kaesberg.

Rev. Mr. MacIntire, recently reported as being very ill at the Deaf and Dumb Asylum of Pennsylvania, has arrived in the city and is at the residence of his son-in-law, C. C. Foster.

An alarm of fire was sounded from the Capital City Planning Mill last night at 11 o'clock. The cause was a small blaze in the finishing room on the third floor. The loss was trifling.

C. A. Wallingford writes the Sentinel that the fire in his residence on Sunday evening was not caused by a defective grate, but that, having sickness in the family and keeping a fire burning night and day for six weeks, the heat penetrated through the solid masonry and parlor ceiling. Mr. Webster says he never saw a better protected grate.

A juror in the Richter-Sentinel suit was sick yesterday and the trial of the case was continued till to-day.

The B. and O. rates for the round trip to Washington are lower than ever made at inauguration time. Less than half fare in many cases and no extra charge for the unparalleled time made by its limited trains.

Drs. Woodburn and Oliver are respectively President and Secretary of the board appointed to examine applicants for positions at the City Hospital and City Dispensary by graduating students. The examination will begin next Monday.

William Bosson had a $100 judgment against Fred Heiner in Room 2 which was secured by a mortgage on a library. The library not being found, Heiner was ruled to appear and answer as to the matter yesterday at 9 o'clock. He failed to appear, and an attachment was issued for him.

The annual meeting of the Alumni Association of the Medical College of Indiana will be held in the lecture room of the college, Thursday morning at 10 o'clock. The exercises will consist of an address on behalf of the faculty by Professor C. E. Wright, the annual address by the President; reading of papers and speeches by members.

Michael Kelleher, 128 Spring street, died yesterday of congestion of the brain. He was forty-five years of age, and for thirty-five years has resided in this city. He was liked very much by every one who knew him, and his death is deeply regretted by all his friends. He leaves a wife and three children. The funeral will take place tomorrow morning at 9 o'clock from St. Joseph's Church.

Stopping a moment to consider what may be the inevitable result in depots where will be massed the arrivals from several roads, how strong must be the argument in favor of the B. and O. which has its own extensive depot in Washington, and no train but its own coming in or going out.

Ill From Blood Poisoning.

The wife of Rev. J. H. Doddridge, of Fletcher Place Church, has been dangerously ill at her residence, on South street, for nearly three weeks, of blood poisoning. Her illness was first caused by a very sore throat, and it finally resulted in blood poisoning. On Sunday it was thought she was past recovery, but a change for the better was observed yesterday morning, and although she is not out of danger by any means, her friends are more hopeful than they have been for several days. Dr. Doddridge has the sympathy of a host of friends.

A Successful Affair.

The "Red, White and Blue" party at the Wigwam Rink last night was a very successful affair, the immense structure being filled with a merry crowd of skaters and spectators. The sight of such a display of our National colors was a pleasurable one, and stirred the "patriotic blood" of all. The prize for the best make-up by a lady was awarded to Miss Mary Albert, and the fortunate one among the gentlemen was Professor Jacob.

Hurt on the Railroad.

Joseph R. Shelton, while on his way to the city on the Vincennes Road several days ago, was considerably shaken up by the train running over a broken place in the track at Maywood. Since then he has been growing worse until he finds it is very difficult for him to keep up and around. He has not been strong for several years, and has a fear that he may find some difficulty in recovering from the effects of his recent shaking up.

An "Overflow" Meeting.

Owing to the crowds at Roberts Park Church last night, it has been determined to hold "an overflow meeting" to-night at the Second Presbyterian Church, where parties will be admitted without tickets. Professor Townner and his wife will sing at the Second Church meeting, and, if possible, Mr. Moody will visit and address the meeting.

LEGISLATIVE NOTES.

The Metropolitan Police Bill to be Further Considered in Caucus.

Special Committee Appointed to Prepare a Bill Reorganizing the Knightstown Home.

The Knightstown Home Investigating Committee Conclude the Taking of Testimony.

The Senate bill giving to farm laborers the same rights with respect to liens for wages as those of mechanics, was engrossed yesterday. The rural districts flooded the Senate yesterday with petitions asking that the manufacture and sale of oleomargarine be suppressed.

This morning, in the Hall of Representatives, Mrs. Nichols will speak on the subject: "The Equality of Manhood and Womanhood Necessary to True Government."

The Temperance Committee reported yesterday, recommending the indefinite postponement of all the bills which had been referred to it. The report was concurred in.

A special committee was appointed yesterday in the Senate to prepare a bill to reorganize the Soldiers' Orphans' Home and Asylum for Feeble-Minded Children, and place the appointment of the new Trustees in the hands of the Governor, with instructions to report to-day.

Every day of the session only the more strongly emphasizes the fact that Speaker Jewett is in all regards one of the most efficient Speakers that has ever presided over an Indiana House of Representatives. Cautious, prompt and painstaking, he is thoroughly business every day and every hour of the day.

The bill providing for the appointment of a Ditch Commissioner by the County Board, instead of the County Court Judge, and that a petition for a ditch shall be signed by a majority of property owners, whose lands will be affected by it, was discussed for the fourth time in the House, yesterday, and finally ordered engrossed.

In the person of Hon. Levi Mock, Wells County sends to the Legislature a Representative of whom she may well be proud. He is certainly an energetic and faithful representative, and no man in the House stands higher in the estimation of his colleagues. Being a lawyer of experience, and a man of strong natural ability, it would not be an easy task to supply his place in our representative body.

The Governor and State officers who are authorized to make a $600,000 loan, and to refund the present indebtedness of the State at a lower rate of interest, held a meeting yesterday evening to make preliminary arrangements for the work and send out circulars to capitalists. A large number of letters have already been received regarding the matter, and it is thought that the loan can be negotiated in a short time.

The majority and minority reports on the Metropolitan Police bill were discussed in the House yesterday, the latter being tabled and the former made the special order for Thursday at 2 o'clock. It is said that the failure to engross the bill yesterday was caused by the fact that considerable objection to the bill has been developed and the supposition is that another caucus will be held for its further consideration. When the caucus determined to support it, there were but four members present, the majority having left immediately after action on the Apportionment bills. A number of the Democrats are in favor of providing that the provisions of the bill shall apply only to those cities whose councils shall decide in favor of the system. The caucus will probably assemble to-morrow night and an amendment of this character will be urged.

THE KNIGHTSTOWN HOME INVESTIGATION.

The evidence in the investigation of the Knightstown Home scandals was concluded at a late hour last night. Several witnesses appeared for Goar during the evening. The first was T. B. Deem, editor of the Knightstown Banner, who testified that he had called Dr. White's attention to the alleged sodomy of the attendant, Morgan.

In talking to Dr. White, Deem remarked that he was told of it by the old soldier, Muser. To this White replied that he had but little confidence in Muser. Jacob Swigart, of New Castle, testified as to character, rumors about Goar, etc. J. M. Allender, of New Castle, testified as to the date of the scandal about Goar and a woman at his office. He described the woman who came out of Goar's office on that occasion with him as being about twenty-two years old, slender, rather tall, and had sandy hair. E. M. Swaim, of Knightstown, testified to having taken a ride with Goar once at Knightstown. There was no drinking by either. Goar was not under the influence of liquor. He was sick, and in the drive to a private hospital, he was given some medicine. The buggy belonged to the asylum.

Samuel Green, formerly a trustee, testified that he helped elect White Superintendent. He, however, was not satisfied with White's management. The farming of the real estate was poorly done. There was a want of harmony in the institution. A little boy named Knight ran away from the Home Green met this lad afterwards and learned from him that he ran away because White whipped him. Green examined and the lad found marks indicating he had been severely whipped. He afterward spoke to White about it. White said he had whipped the boy hard because he thought he needed it, as he was a bad boy and hard to govern. There never was any conflict between Miss Clark and the trustees.

At this point Major Gordon said he had a couple more important witnesses to examine, but they were at New Castle. One of these was John Wright. The Sheriff by mistake had subpoenaed Philip Wright, who was present in the House. Chairman Lloyd said he wanted the evidence closed before the committee adjourned, and after a few moments delay Mr. Goar took the stand.

Mr. Goar denied everything. He said he had had no improper relations with Nellie Layton, nor had he ever made any indecent proposals to her. He told the story of himself and wife and Nellie going to New Castle together on the train from the Home. Nellie went to be examined in order to obtain a teacher's license. She was not at his office. In the afternoon he heard the scandal about her having been in his office with him and told her of it. They then made arrangements to have the story denied. Soon after this Nellie met him in this city, and they went to Major Gordon's office where the affidavit denying the whole thing was made by Nellie. He met her after that once. He also heard that his wife was at the Grand Hotel one afternoon, and met-ing Hattie Robinson on the street, asked her to go with him and see his wife. At the sidewalk he jumped out, and leaving her in the buggy he went into the hotel, but found his wife was not there. That was all there was of it. The story of May Thompson was true, except that he did not hug her as she said. To none of these had he ever made improper advances. He never drank but one or two glasses of liquor at the Home, never went there drunk and was not drunk there at any time. Heard the story of Moran's brutality to young Bomler and reported it to the Board of Trustees at the next meeting and he was discharged. The story about his commission of the crime of Sodomy was not understood by the witnesses until after the investigation had been commenced, and for that reason had not been reported.

At a late hour last night Mr. Goar was still on the stand, and it was the understanding that Dr. White was to follow him. Dr. White's evidence was also understood to be of a similar character, viz.: a refutation of the charges made against him and some imputation of Goar.

The books of the Asylum will now be examined by Senator Mooy, and by to-morrow, if nothing happens to prevent it, the report is to be made up and will be submitted to the Legislature.
